Re: United States v. Danny Parker, 14 Cr. 139 (LAP)

Dear Judge Preska:

A status conference is currently scheduled in the above-captioned matter for February 4, 2020, at 11 a.m. The Government respectfully requests that the Court adjourn the conference for approximately two weeks.

On January 13, 2020, the Court arraigned the defendant in the above-captioned matter on specifications of violations of supervised release. One of the specifications alleges that the defendant committed an assault on or about December 12, 2019, for which the defendant is subject to arrest in Kings County, New York.

I have spoken with the investigating detective and assistant district attorney in charge of the assault case, who informed me that they plan to seek an indictment against the defendant within the next two weeks. Because the proceedings in the separate assault prosecution will have a significant impact on the course of these violation of supervised release proceedings, the parties agree that a status conference would more productively be held after observing whether an indictment is returned within that time.

Therefore, the Government respectfully requests, with the consent of defense counsel, that the Court adjourn the currently scheduled conference. After conferring with defense counsel and
